

Mövenpick Hotel Saigon is offering big promotions for the Vietnam's Lunar New Year holiday.

The hotel, located at 253 Nguyen Van Troi Street, Phu Nhuan District is offering a seafood buffet from VND780,000 (US$37) a person every Friday from 6 p.m. to 10:30 pm, including a free flow of house wine, beer and soft drink.

There's also a brunch of delicious and authentic dim sum every Saturday and Sunday from 11:30 am to 2:30 pm, starting at VND270,000 ($13) a person.

During the month of January, the IKI Tet bento box at the hotel will make great Japanese food affordable from VND199,000 ($9.5) a person. The foods are served every day from 11:30 a.m. to 2:30 p.m.

Customers are also encouraged to order the "Beartini" cocktail for VND170,000 ($8) at the hotel's bar, which will let them take home a Mövenpick teddy bear.

The hotel's Cay Da café is offering a 50 percent discount on selected homemade items after 5 p.m., including green tea and white chocolate bars, sour bread rolls and chocolate fondant.

Thanh Nien News